Mission Activity Sheet

Mission : Mr. Big Brain & the Missing Knowledge

GROWN-UPS: BEFORE YOU BEGIN

This activity is designed to be flexible and low-pressure.

- You may pause the video anytime
- Materials are optional
- Participation matters more than completion
- This mission works with or without this sheet.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED (OPTIONAL)

- Use envelopes, containers, or hiding spots.
- Substitute freely if something isn't available.

HOW THE MISSION WORKS

- There are 5 clues.
- Each clue completes one sentence.
- Together, the sentences solve the mission.

Hide the clues before starting the video.

MISSION SENTENCES & CLUES

LOOK (Observe)

Find something you can see.

Sentence: The planet we're looking for is _____.
(color, size, shape, texture)

READ / LISTEN (Words)

Find or hear a word.

Sentence: The planet is called _____.
(word from a book, sign, card, or spoken aloud)

MOVE (Action)

Move with purpose.

Sentence: To stop Mr. Big Brain, we have to _____.
(walk, fly, tiptoe, jump, move quietly)

THINK & CALM (Ready)

Finish calmly.

Sentence: To complete this mission, we have to _____.
(calm, focused, thinking, ready)

COUNT (Numbers)

Count objects, steps, or movements.

Sentence: Mr. Big Brain has _____.
(number or quantity word)

The clues are intentionally open-ended.
There is no single correct answer.

Children may use:

- one word or several words
- numbers, descriptions, or short phrases

For example, for "Mr. Big Brain has ___", a child might say:
ten spaceships, all the books, or too much knowledge.

Any answer that makes sense to your child is the right answer.

Encourage thinking, creativity, and explanation rather than accuracy.

AFTER THE MISSION

Read the sentences together in order.
That's how the mission is solved.
